CHEL TENHAM CIVIC SOCIETY

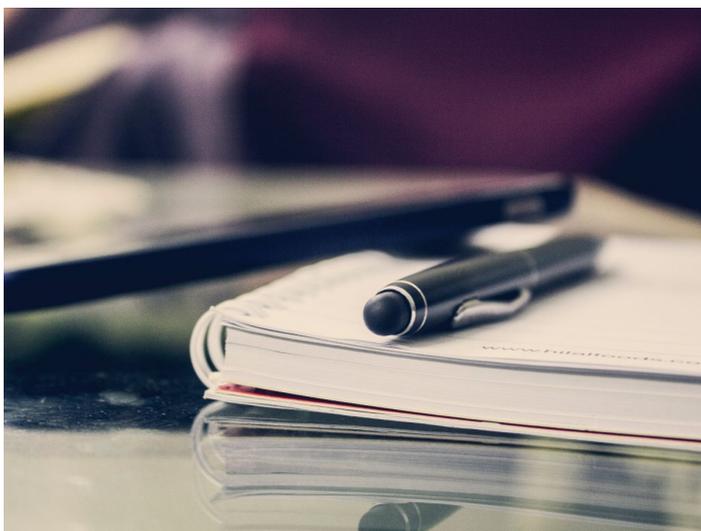

e-Bulletin No. 26 - December 2018

Welcome to the last e-Bulletin of 2018. I have rounded up a few important notes below and made it easier for you to respond to them using the buttons. Please feel free to share the bulletin with friends and colleagues.

2018 has been another productive year for Cheltenham Civic Society. Lesley Whittal and her team laid on a superb range of lectures. An impressive team of members came together to survey the High Street for Civic Pride Day and enabled the creation of our new Street Pride Group under Maxine Melling. Peter Sayers' Planning Forum continued to support the town with constructive feedback on planning applications and our relationships with Cheltenham BID, Cheltenham Development Task Force and Cheltenham Borough Council go from strength to strength. Our Great War Crosses Project under Freddie Gick has conserved the former grave markers, Pittville School's research is nearing its conclusion and we're working with the Council to finalise their permanent home. All this and more was captured by Fiona Clarke in the brilliant Our Town.

There are so many other activities and people I could mention but on behalf of the members, I wish to thank all our trustees and volunteers for making Cheltenham Civic Society such an energetic and stimulating society. On behalf of the Trustees, I wish you all a very merry Christmas and a happy New Year. We look forward to seeing you in 2019.

Andrew Booton
Chairman
Cheltenham Civic Society

Membership Survey

I would like to look ahead to 2019 by asking you to complete our membership survey. It is an online survey that is simple and quick to complete. As a thank you, a small prize is offered, the winner of which will be announced in the New Year. Closing date for completion is

Potential Trustees Evening

We are looking for a number of new trustees for installation at our next AGM. Members who are interested in the work of trustees are invited to come and have a chat on Tuesday 5 February at 6.30pm (before Jim Markland's lecture). Please let me know if you would like to attend.

Research & Policy Group Meeting

Cheltenham Civic Society faces many opportunities to comment on consultations and contribute to policy at the national, regional and local levels, from the National Planning Policy Framework to Boots Corner. We are looking to establish a Research and Policy Group of members who are interested in identifying issues, analysing proposals and writing submissions. Interested members are invited to a meeting at Parmoor House at 10.30am on Saturday 12 January to discuss ideas.
